Larceny of a Mule.

During the night of Thursday, the 26th inst., a grand larceny was committed in Beauvais township by unknown persons. A fine mule, of the value of $100, was stolen from Louis Anderson, who lives on the Little Saline, near Minnith. Mr. Anderson had tied his two mules to a wagon in the lot adjoining his residence. Both mules were taken by the thieves, but one of them, being a vicious animal, was probably rather unmanageable, so it was abandoned in the neighboring wood. A few days later the mule was found by its owner at Fredericksburg in the possession of Mr. Alexander Nilong who had purchased it of a man, supposed to have been the thief.

A lively political rally occurred in St. Mary on Wednesday, 26th inst., on the occasion of the regular monthly meeting of the Cleveland and Thurman Club of that town. Difant Hall was well filled by an intelligent audience to hear addresses on the Tariff Question and other political topics discussed from a Democratic stand point. A number of ladies was present, and several leading Republicans and members of the Union Labor Party attended the meeting, which was presided over in a dignified manner by Judge Gilbert. After the singing of "The Red Bandanna" in splendid style by the Ste. Genevieve Cleveland and Thurman Glee Club, the Chairman introduced Mr. Joseph Flynn, of Ste. Genevieve, who argued for about an hour on some of the principal points of political doctrine advanced by the Democratic Party. His address tended to show that the Democratic Party is the only true friend of popular liberty, and that the Republican Party is the offspring of political fanaticism. His speech was very favorably received by the audience.

Next followed the singing of a fine campaign song by the Glee Club, which was loudly applauded and the Chair introduced Mr. Eugene Carssow, of Ste. Genevieve, who delivered a rational, well-considered address in partial review of the Mills' Tariff Bill and its benefits to the American working man. It was Mr. Carssow's maiden political speech, and was listened to very appreciatively. After an other campaign song by the Glee Club, Mr. A. S. Coker, of Ste. Genevieve, was called for by the audience and imparted some sound Democratic instruction to his hearers. A few more ringing campaign songs were sung by the Club in a manner that called forth tumultuous applause and the meeting closed shortly after ten p.m. with a few remarks from Chairman Gilbert, who proposed a resolution of thanks, seconded by Mr. M. W. Hoffman, to the visitors from Ste. Genevieve for their services in behalf of the Cleveland and Thurman Club of St. Mary. The hotel bills of the speakers and singers were paid by the St. Mary Club.

SUPTIAL CEREMONIES.

Naeger—Bauman.

Fries—Naeger.

The rare and interesting event of a double wedding ceremony in which a brother and a sister are happily united to their respective partners for life greeted the eyes of a large assemblage of persons at St. Joseph's Church, Zell, on Tuesday last, September 25th, 1888.

It was the auspicious occasion of the union in holy wedlock of Mr. Peter Naeger to Miss Josephine Bauman and of his sister, Miss Lizzie Naeger, to Mr. Henry Flieg, during the celebration of the Nuptial High Mass, the pastor, Rev. Father Pigge, who was also the celebrant of the Mass administered the sacrament of matrimony to the happy couples, thereby setting the solemn seal of the Church and its benediction on their union of love, and rendering it irrevocable for life.

At the close of the impressive ceremony in the church the bridal parties proceeded to the residence of Mr. Wendelin Naeger, near the Copper Mines, where a substantial dinner was spread and partaken of by all. During the hours of reception and congratulations from the numerous guests, music and dancing was the order of the day and the visitors enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content.
